COMPLIANCE

Schools may use the following strategies and disciplinary measures for violations of the School Uniforms and Dress Codes policy.

Principals are responsible for the enforcement of the dress code. A student who is not in compliance with this policy or a school dress code shall be given a reasonable period of time to make adjustments so that he or she will be in compliance. Failure to comply may result in the student being removed from school until his or her appearance or clothing meets school system policy or rules. The student's parent or guardian shall be notified prior to any such removal. (See items 1-5 below)

If necessary, disciplinary action may be taken to encourage compliance with the policy. Noncompliance could result in suspension or expulsion. Refer to the Student Code of Conduct.

A student who is not in compliance with the uniform dress code will be disciplined in the following manner.

1. The first infraction will involve parent contact by phone and a letter describing how the student was not in compliance with the policy. The parent will be asked to bring appropriate clothing to place the student within compliance immediately.
2. The second infraction will involve a parent meeting and the student will be sent home for the remainder of the school day.
3. The third infraction will result in the student receiving a 3-day suspension from school.
4. The fourth infraction will result in the student receiving a 5-day suspension from school.
5. The fifth infraction will result in the student receiving a 10-day suspension from school.
6. The sixth infraction will result in the student receiving a recommendation for long-term suspension for noncompliance and insubordination.

EXEMPTIONS

A. Request for Exemption and Appeals

A parent who objects to the school uniform because of his or her religion, religious belief or because of a medical condition of the student must obtain a copy of the policy on School Uniforms and Dress Codes, a Request for Exemption form and an Exemption Questionnaire from the school, complete the form and questionnaire, and return them to the school. The principal shall review the form and questionnaire and accept or deny the request for exemption. If the principal is considering denying the request, he or she must first send a letter to the parent requesting a meeting to discuss and clarify the reason for the exemption request. The parent must meet with the principal within three school days of receiving the letter. The principal must accept or deny the request within two school days of meeting with the parent. If the principal denies the request, he or she must give the parent a written basis for the decision. The parent can appeal a principal's denial of the request for exemption to the Superintendent (or designee) by following the Warren County Schools Appeals Process.

- B. A religious exemption can be based on the religion of the parent or the religion of the child, but the parent must apply for the exemption in either case.

C. Example of an Exemption Request

Mr. Smith requests an exemption for his daughter. He states that he is a member of a particular faith, and his religion requires women to cover their heads and all parts of their bodies except their face, hands, and feet when in public. Mr. Smith believes that wearing the traditional dress style of his faith will allow his child to fulfill these requirements. He believes that the school uniform is not sufficient to meet the requirements set forth by his faith.

In this example, the parent identified his religion and one of its beliefs or tenets and indicated how he believed wearing the school uniform conflicts with one of his religion's beliefs.
