The applicant: (Please check any that apply)

- Currently attends a public school or public charter school WITHIN the Warren County School District.
- Currently attends a public school or public charter school NOT within the Warren County School District
- Currently attends private school.
- Currently is home schooled.

I hereby submit this application packet for my child to be considered for admission to high schools in the Warren County Schools District. I understand that all student information will be maintained in confidence by district personnel.

I have attended a parent session about high school selection/reform.

I have reviewed the high school preference packet and approve of my child's preference(s).

If the applying student is not a current Warren County School student, the student's current school will be contacted to obtain a current report card and teacher input.

For students in EC, ESL, or AIG programs and students with a 504 plan: The student's case manager will be contacted to provide input. If the District considers denying students with disabilities their preference for school assignment, a group of knowledgeable persons will convene prior to the denial to assess the student's educational needs in accordance with 34 §C.F.R. 104.35.

My signature below acknowledges understanding of these statements and provides consent to contact current teachers and case managers.
